

LAY MINISTRY SUNDAY

UNDERSTANDING THE MISSION FOR A NEW EVANGELIZATION

What does it mean to be a lay leader in light of a new evangelization? Evangelization is rooted in the concept of mission. Connecting with the mission of Christ compels us to evangelize and not just be consumer Catholics.

When: Sunday, March 2, 2014; 4:30 – 7:30 PM

Where: Our Lady Queen of Martyrs Church
110-06 Queens Boulevard
Forest Hills

Cost: Free will offering on day of event

Travel by car pool or mass transportation suggested

Talk will be delivered bilingually in English and Spanish

Our speaker will be Dr. Frank Villaronga, Chairperson of the National Association for Lay Ministry and Director of Evangelization and Ministry Formation for the Diocese of Charlotte

Solemn Vespers Presided by Bishop
Octavio Cisneros, Auxiliary Bishop of Brooklyn

Light Reception to follow

Lay Ministry Sunday is a day to publically celebrate God's call to all the baptized to use their gifts in service to others and to the Church.

Please plan to attend this special event.

So that we may plan to have enough refreshments please return this form by February 22, 2014:
Pastoral Institute, 310 Prospect Park West, Brooklyn, NY 11215, Attn: Lay Ministry Sunday
Phone: (718) 281-9556 Fax: (718) 399-5920 Email: gtortorella@diobrook.org

Please print all information clearly:

PARISH: _____

CONTACT PERSON: _____

Day Phone _____ Email _____

Names of Persons Attending (use back of page for more names):

- | | |
|----------|-----------|
| 1. _____ | 6. _____ |
| 2. _____ | 7. _____ |
| 3. _____ | 8. _____ |
| 4. _____ | 9. _____ |
| 5. _____ | 10. _____ |

Made possible in part through a grant from the Catholic Foundation for Brooklyn and Queens.