The Seed is the Word of God

CURRICULUM GUIDE
GRADE THREE
May 15, 2014

Dear Monsignor / Father, Catechetical Leader, and Catechist:

Our Holy Father, Pope Francis, in his address to participants during the pilgrimage of catechists on the occasion of the Year of Faith and the International Congress on Catechesis, said, “It is perhaps the best legacy we can pass on: the Faith! To educate in the Faith, to make it grow, to help children, young people, and adults, to know and love the Lord more and more is one of the most exciting aspects of education. It builds up the Church!”

The School of Evangelization, formed under my direction in the fall of 2013, fosters the ongoing Faith formation and education of all involved in this most important ministry of the Church: the young and the old, the student and the catechist, the parent and the pastor.

I encourage you to promote the catechetical mission of the Church in our parish programs and academies and schools in Brooklyn and Queens by using this The Seed is The Word of God Curriculum Guide as your primary catechetical guide.

Please be assured that all involved in the education and formation in the Faith of our young people and their parents, so vital a part of our Church today, are remembered daily in my masses and prayers.

In a special way, I thank Mr. Theodore Musco, Executive Director of the School of Evangelization and Director of the Office of Faith Formation; Sr. Alice Michael, SUSC, Coordinator, RCIA and Children's Faith Formation; Mrs. Frances DeLuca; Miss Mary Flannery and Mr. Lawrence Rilla for their contributions to this Curriculum Guide.

Asking Christ Our Teacher to extend His choicest blessings upon you and with every best wish, I am

Sincerely in Christ,

Nicholas DiMarzio
Most Reverend Nicholas DiMarzio, Ph.D., D.D.
Bishop of Brooklyn
Introduction

Since 2011, The Seed is the Word of God Resource for Catechetical Planning has served as the primary resource for organizing our religious education programs in the parishes, schools, and academies of the Diocese of Brooklyn. It was written to provide pastors, administrators, catechetical leaders, catechists and parents the tools necessary to ensure that a well-planned and complete program of religious education is available for every student. It also provided guidance for ensuring parish programs of lifelong faith formation (Appendix One).

I am pleased to present the new The Seed is the Word of God Curriculum Guide. Revisions have been made to the original 2011 document based on the comments by many of you in the field. Outcomes are now organized for kindergarten through grade eight by individual grade. Standards and outcomes are presented for each of the core courses found in the Doctrinal Elements of a Curriculum Framework (United States Conference of Catholic Bishops) for young people of high school age. Vocabulary words, saints, prayers, and liturgical terms have been added to kindergarten through grade eight sections. Appendices include a Plan for Lifelong Formation, Media Resources, Parent/Adult Standards and Outcomes, Sacrament Standards, USCCB Approved Texts, and a listing of important Church documents regarding the New Evangelization and Catechesis.

The Seed is the Word of God Curriculum Guide provides the catechist with the resource for teaching the faith comprehensively to children and youth. It contains the following:

- The SIX TASKS OF CATECHESIS found in the National Directory for Catechesis. These serve as the basic doctrinal building blocks for organizing our religious education programs.

- STANDARDS that serve as statements of what the Church teaches. The textbook you use will provide the materials and methods to communicate the Church’s teaching.

- OUTCOMES that state what the learner will know, believe, or be expected to do at the end of the lesson and will indicate how that knowledge or skill will be demonstrated.

When planning to teach religion, a catechist will make use of the following resources in this particular order:

- FIRST Scope and Sequence (from your program’s approved text)

- SECOND Catechist Manual (from your program’s approved text)

- THIRD The Seed is the Word of God Curriculum Guide

The Seed of the Word of God will help the catechist determine whether progress has been made at the specific grade level. The catechist will use the document as a checklist to indicate those standards and outcomes that have been successfully completed. The catechist will make use of this guide throughout each catechetical year to determine that the required standards and outcomes are being met.

Thank you for your faithfulness and commitment to the ministry of catechesis.

CTN digital religion videos are available through LEARN360 (an interactive, media-on-demand digital delivery service) to Parishes that have an association with a Diocesan School or an Academy. Some videos have teacher resources and most videos are downloadable. There are videos available for ALL grade levels, Kindergarten through High School, focusing on the elementary levels.

This is what you will find within our 500 Catholic videos:

- Animated videos
- Short film videos produced by teens
- Sacramental videos
- Character Builder programs
- Documentaries
- Vocational videos
- Missionary videos
- Church Doctrine and Teaching programs
- Lent, Easter, Advent & Christmas programs
- Lives of Saints programs

CATECHETICAL TASK 4: PRAYER

Catechesis teaches the Christian how to pray with Christ.

Standard One: Learners actively participate in the Mass, various forms of worship, formal prayers, and devotions.

Outcome: Parents teach their child:
  - appropriate prayers and Bible stories.
  - the true meaning of feast days like Christmas and Easter.

Standard Two: Faith Formation programs support and empower parents as the primary religious educators of their children.

Outcome: Parents teach prayer by being people of prayer.

Standard Three: Private prayer is a means by which we communicate with God and strengthen our relationship with Him.

Outcome: Parents and adults make prayer and spiritual reflection an essential part of their lives.

CATECHETICAL TASK FIVE: EVANGELIZATION

Catechesis prepares the Christian to live in community and to participate actively in the life and mission of the Church.

Standard One: A variety of vocational callings are a response to one's baptism in Christ.

Outcome: Parents and adults realize that like the Church, they too have a duty to proclaim Christ to others at home, in the workplace, and in society in general.

Standard Two: Engage the learner in service to the community as a response to the Gospels and as a primary way of coming to know, love, and serve God.

Outcome: Parents and adults demonstrate discipleship by sharing their time, talent and treasure with the poor and elderly.

Standard Three: Promote understanding and respect for different cultures and religions.

Outcome: Parents expose their child to the traditions of other cultures and religions, and show respect for all.

Standard Four: Support the exercise of responsible stewardship for the gift of God's creation.

Outcome: Parents and adults teach their child examples of stewardship for the gift of God's creation.
CATECHETICAL TASK SIX: EVANGELIZATION
Catechesis promotes a missionary spirit that prepares the faithful to be and to give a clear Christian witness in society.

Appendix Four: General Standards for Sacraments

These standards apply to all catechists who are preparing candidates to receive the Sacrament of Penance, Eucharist, and/or Confirmation.

Regardless of his/her age, a candidate preparing to receive the Sacrament of Penance, Holy Eucharist, or Confirmation is expected to know and understand the following:

Eucharist

In preparation to receive the Sacrament of Eucharist, the candidate must know and understand at least the following:

- The Eucharist is a living memorial of Christ’s sacrifice for all mankind and a commemoration of His Last Supper.
- Jesus instituted the Eucharist at the Last Supper on the night before He died for us.
- The ordinary bread and wine becomes the Body and Blood of Christ (transubstantiation).
- A fast of at least one hour before receiving the Eucharist is required.
- A person must be in a state of grace before receiving the Eucharist.
- The Eucharist brings us closer to God and one another.
- A person must receive the Eucharist at least once a year during the Easter season.
- The Eucharist is the “source and summit” of our life.
- The celebrant of the Eucharist is a validly ordained priest or bishop who acts in the Person of Jesus and in the name of the Church.

Penance

In preparation to receive the Sacrament of Penance, the candidate must know and understand at least the following:

- The Sacrament of Penance may also be known as the sacrament of Reconciliation, Forgiveness, Confession, and Conversion.
- Christ instituted the Sacrament of Penance for those who are baptized but have been separated from Him by sin.
- Penance helps us to grow in relationship with Jesus and one another (the Church).
- Penance allows us to overcome our failures and weaknesses.
- The priest is the ordinary minister of Penance but we are truly confessing to Jesus Himself.
- The priest is bound to maintain the “sacramental seal” and to never reveal what was said to him while hearing one’s Confession.
- The Act of Contrition may be said in this form or any other similar form:

  My God, I am sorry for my sins with all my heart.
  In choosing to do wrong and failing to do good, I have sinned against you whom I should love above all things.
  I firmly intend, with your help,
  To do penance, to sin no more,
  And to avoid whatever leads me to sin.
  Our Savior Jesus Christ suffered and died for us.
  In His name, my God, have mercy.
  Amen.
• A person is required to confess mortal sin at least once a year but always before receiving Eucharist.

• A mortal sin is something that is seriously wrong, freely chosen, and breaks the relationship with God.

• A venial sin is a sin that is less serious than a mortal sin but still hurts our relationship with God.

CONFIRMATION
In preparation to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation, the candidate must know and understand at least the following:

• The ordinary minister of the Sacrament of Confirmation is the Bishop.

• Confirmation is that sacrament that completes what was begun in Baptism.

• The effect of Confirmation is a special outpouring of the Holy Spirit that gives us strength to witness to our Catholic faith.

• The essential rites of Confirmation include the anointing with Sacred Chrism and the laying on of hands.

• One must be in a state of grace to receive Confirmation.

• Confirmation leaves an indelible mark on one’s soul.

The Confirmation candidate must prepare to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation by assuming the role of disciple and serving the needs of the community.
