

The Fourth Sunday of Easter is characterized by the Gospel of the Good Shepherd, in the tenth chapter of St. John, which we read every year. "My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish. No one can take them out of my hand. My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all, and no one can take them out of the Father's hand. The Father and I are one" (10:27-30).

Jesus wants to establish a relationship with his friends that is a reflection of His relationship with the Father, a relationship of mutual belonging in full trust, in intimate communion. To express this deep understanding, this relationship of friendship, Jesus uses the image of the shepherd with his sheep: he calls them, they know his voice, they respond to his call and follow him.

Jesus, referring to his sheep, says: "My Father, who has given them to me ..." (Jn 10:29). This is very important. It is a profound mystery, that is not easy to understand. If I feel attracted to Jesus, if his voice warms my heart, it is thanks to God the Father, who has put in me the desire of love, of truth, life, beauty ... and Jesus is all this to the fullest! This helps us to understand the mystery of vocation, particularly the call to a special consecration. Sometimes Jesus calls us, invites us to follow him, but maybe we don't realize that it is Him, just like young Samuel.

I would like to ask you: Have you sometimes heard the voice of the Lord which through a desire, a certain restlessness, invites you to follow Him more closely? Have you heard it? Have you had any desire to be an apostle of Jesus? Ask Jesus what he wants from you and be brave! Be brave, ask Him!!! Behind and before every vocation to the priesthood or consecrated life is always the strong and intense prayer of someone: a grandmother, a grandfather, a mother, a father, a community ... That's why Jesus said, "Pray the Lord of the harvest (that is, God the Father) to send out laborers into his harvest" (Mt 9:38). Vocations are born in prayer and from prayer, and only in prayer can they persevere and bear fruit.

Let us invoke the intercession of Mary who is the woman who said "yes." Mary said "yes" all her life! She has learned to recognize the voice of Jesus since she bore him in her womb. Mary, Our Mother, help us to know better the voice of Jesus and follow it, to walk the path of life!

Pope Francis

World Day of Prayer for Vocations
April 21, 2013

Many people are hearing the call to give everything, and are seeking vocations to priesthood and religious life that is joyfully lived. They have discovered that true happiness is realized in doing the Lord's will and have come to recognize the invitation of the Lord in the silence of their hearts. Pope Francis has encouraged us to listen attentively for this invitation and to respond to it generously. We have planned many discernment events throughout the year to encourage our young people to listen attentively to the voice of the Lord. You can follow us on Facebook, Twitter, and at our website to get more information.

If you have heard the Lord's invitation in your heart, please consider reaching out to me at vocations@diobrook.org or by phone (718) 827-2454. I am happy to help you in any way I can. The Lord desires to reveal his plan for your life, and will give you the grace to respond with a generous and joy-filled heart! Allow me to end with the words of St. John Paul II, "I plead with you - never, ever give up on hope, never doubt, never tire, and never become discouraged. Be not afraid".
