Molloy’s intensive academic counseling helps students to select the colleges that are best for them and to win scholarships at top Ivy League, Catholic, private and public universities. Extensive opportunities for personal counseling grow out of the Marist Brothers’ mission of service and promote students’ spiritual and emotional development in both small groups and one-on-one sessions.

The Marist Brothers’ Retreat House in Esopus, NY is the site of many camps and retreats at which Molloy students can either attend or work as counselors and service staff. Freshman Camp, a unique opportunity for incoming freshman, is held each year at Esopus for one week in July. The summer camp is designed to build community spirit, enrich students’ self-esteem, initiate friendships and develop relationships. Molloy students volunteer for service programs throughout the U.S and abroad, including in Nicaragua, Haiti, and Lourdes, France.
